9:00	Greeting A. Thank you for filling out the survey. We have a better idea of where we are. <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. It's obvious alternative methods are needed to get SIYAC into schools and to reach legislators2. Make a commitment to present to schools, committees present their findings to SIYAC by 2nd meeting, contact legislators by 2nd meeting and inform them of committee work.
9:15	Progress B. Is SIYAC on track? What do we need to do to get on track, stay on track, or move forward? What should everyone accomplish in the first quarter? <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Need help drafting a mission statement for SIYAC as a whole. Submit draft or potential mission statements to Veronica, Sean, and Annelise. Visionaries of the group highly encouraged to submit ideas!
9:15-9:25	Trip to DC Veronica and I will be going to represent SIYAC at the 2 nd annual Youth Council Network Convening in Washington D.C. on October 25th. We will be meeting with legislators and other youth councils.

1. Can Youth Outreach committee complete a brochure this week, with committee information and goals?
2. What else should we present to our legislative partners? How should we approach them with the ask of “how can you help us?”

9:30-9:45 A. Discuss Committee Work

1. Distribute committee missions, assignments, partners
2. Arrange for means of communication within groups
3. Finalize what you will accomplish before November 18th

9:50-9:55 ICYD invites SIYAC to the table

The Iowa Collaboration for Youth Development, a council committed to uniting the many state agencies on issues related to youth development, invites SIYAC to sit at the table to provide youth input. ICYD meets once a month in Des Moines and would like SIYAC to actively take part in these meetings and to possibly form mentoring partnerships with SIYAC individuals and/or committees. Contact Annelise if you would be interested in attending these meetings or if you would like to learn more.

9:55-10 Closing Remarks- Conference call following conference set for November 4th at 9pm?

Please email Annelise or Veronica with any comments or concerns you may have.
